A Special Editorial Announcement and 4 Great Books for You - Free

Dear Reader:

This is somewhat unusual . . . but Evergreen's Editors would like to send you as many as 4 books -- most remarkable books, too -- with their personal compliments.

This richly rewarding gift is our way of inviting you to celebrate with us a new phase of the exciting cultural explosion we are living in, as Evergreen becomes a monthly magazine (instead of publishing every two months as in the past).

And this gift represents the feeling of our Editors that you, unless we have been badly misinformed, would share with Evergreen's readers a delight in the most adult - the most literate - the most stimulating and meaningful writing, theatre, art and photography on today's cultural scene.

Actually, this change has long been overdue. Even though Evergreen has consistently been the leader in introducing the freshest, most gifted writers, artists, sculptors and playwrights in the world, I must confess that it has often been a frustrating and heartbreaking task to choose from an embarrassment of literary riches. After all, why should our more than 200,000 readers (skyrocketing up from some 25,000 a little over a year ago) have to wait two months for such stimulating, varied reading as they have been receiving in recent issues:

- ✓ Rosencrantz & Guildenstern Are Dead - the complete script of this international hit that may well be one of the most important and enduring plays of this century.
- ✓ The Magical Mystery Trip - Timothy Leary takes you on a guided visit to turned-on Anglo-India, a hip session of London's Parliament and the Beatles' revelations.
- ✓ Che Guevara's Diary - first publication of the campaign diary found on Che's body when he was killed in Bolivia.
- ✓ I Was Curious - Excerpts from the diary of this sensational Swedish film kept by the Director.
- ✓ Ft. Lauderdale Beer Bust - in which seven college students tell Evergreen readers what really goes on during those Bacchanalian Easter rites on the Florida beaches -- and much more that will delight you, excite you, provoke you, and keep you right up in the vanguard where it's all happening.

My associates and I think that you, too, will enjoy the new Evergreen Review -- and just to back up our opinion on this notable occasion, we've arranged an extremely advantageous double-barrelled offer for you, consisting of . . .

1. An introductory subscription to the new monthly Evergreen Review at a saving of 25% from the newsstand price (or 33% off if you prefer the longer term);
2. PLUS a free copy - sent to you at once with the Editors' compliments -- of each of the following books:

✓ You receive THE PEARL, one of the most remarkable examples of underground literature ever printed. This giant volume includes six complete novels and hundreds of other fascinating, rollicking treasures.

✓ Then there is LA MAISON DE RENDEZ-VOUS, called by the New York Times "a mystery novel with murder, sex, money, beautiful girls strolling in the exotic streets of Hong Kong...but undeniably one of the most challenging novels of the season...a new literary entertainment, and a poetic, captivating book."

✓ The third book is A MAN WITH A MAID, an erotic classic suppressed for 75 years. It is a fascinating, beautifully written anonymous novel that explores with rare candor the various relationships between a gentleman, a woman he holds in bondage, and various other persons. It is a runaway national bestseller.

AND AN EXTRA BONUS

✓ The fourth book is I AM CURIOUS, which makes available the complete scenario and over 250 still photos from the sensational Swedish film which has not yet been allowed into this country. It is yours as an extra free bonus simply for saving the bother of bookkeeping and billing on your introductory subscription.

Please note that this introductory invitation and gift book offer is for this occasion to mark the change of Evergreen Review to monthly publication. To take advantage of it, simply return the enclosed subscription voucher. Your free books will go out to you at once.

I hope you will accept this invitation to enjoy the new monthly Evergreen Review. I think you will find every issue a fresh, eye-opening experience, with more good reading, more eye-opening color, more stunning photos, more dazzling visual beauty than you've ever seen before.

Sincerely,

Myron Shapiro

A Runaway National Bestseller

A MAN WITH A MAID

This famous anonymous novel of the Victorian era relates the story of a Victorian gentleman named Jack who has been jilted by Alice, the maiden, and "vows to make her voluptuous person recompense him for his disappointment." Setting up residence in a soundproof room replete with iron rings set into the walls and rope pulleys hanging from the beams, he lures Alice into the "Snuggery" and gradually introduces her to the joys of sexuality. Having initiated Alice, the two then entice Alice's maid Fanny into the "Snuggery" and proceed to convert her as well. Subsequently they combine forces on their next victim, a young widow, and in a final scene all four join together to initiate the last victims, an obnoxious mother and her marriageable daughter.

This is an authentic gem of Victorian erotica. Two volumes in one.

A Newly-Discovered Jewel of Unblushing Erotica

THE PEARL

3 Volumes Complete in 1 Giant Volume

Here are all eighteen issues of the famed but quickly suppressed underground magazine of Victorian England, banned since 1880. This giant volume of "Facetiae and voluptuous reading" includes six complete novels that are standards of the black literature of the time ("Lady Pokingham, or They All Do It," "Miss Coote's Confession," "La Rose d'Amour, or The Adventures of a Gentleman in Search of Pleasure," etc.) as well as many short stories, a collection of the meatiest limericks then current in an age famed for that art form, ballads of epic sexual adventures, and countless ditties, witticisms, jokes, letters from "readers" and a potpourri of the scandalous gossip of the day. A remarkable collector's item.

"A New Literary Entertainment"

LA MAISON DE RENDEZ-VOUS

By Alain Robbe-Grillet

An exciting and absorbing novel by the famous French writer whose work has opened a new path for fiction. It is, in the words of The New York Times, "A mystery novel with murder, sex, money, beautiful girls strolling in the exotic streets of Hong Kong. ... but undeniably one of the most challenging novels of the season ... a poetic, amusing, captivating book." The setting in Hong Kong is a house of assignation run by an expert at catering to the varying tastes of her clients. "An elegant sibylline, sophisticated striptease." (The Kirkus Service)

PLUS... Special Extra Bonus of the Sensational Swedish Film
I AM CURIOUS (yellow) The complete scenario with over 250 actual photos
(Yours free for saving us and you bookkeeping red tape)

Over 150,000 readers (grown from 25,000 just eighteen months ago) are provoked, stimulated and delighted each month with such articles and features as these, drawn from recent and forthcoming issues:

300,000 with latest issue

- THE BEARD — the full text of the sensational "funny, fast and authentically outrageous brilliant little monster of a play." (Newsweek);
- FILM A LA WARHOL—Behind the scenes with the DeMille of the underground set;
- THE MURDER OF SWINBURNE—An advance sampling of Jack Kerouac's big new novel;
- CHE GUEVARA—What really happened in the Bolivian jungles, plus Che's own reminiscences of the guerrilla days with Fidel Castro;
- A FRENCHMAN LOOKS AT EROTICA — Alain Robbe-Grillet, one of France's most distinguished novelists, expresses his intriguing views on everything sexual from Kinsey to Cardinale;
- LE ROI JONES VS. "WHITEY"—Saul Gottlieb's interview with the poet and black militant shortly after the Newark riots—plus the poem that the judge cited in giving Jones an unprecedentedly savage sentence;

- THE FALL OF JERUSALEM—A report by Abdullah (née Marc) Schleifer;
- GRIDIRON MAIDENS—Sensational photographs taken secretly in the girl's locker room of a midwestern high school;
- POETRY BY HO CHI MINH—Nine "Prison Poems" by the President of North Vietnam;
- EP (EPIDERMAL) ART—Six glorious pages of eight fantastic females illustrating the newest, wildest art form ever;
- CONFESSIONS OF A HIPPIE—An exclusive interview telling it like it is—exactly like it is — on the hippie scene . . . sex, drugs, babies, homosexuality, you name it;

AND MORE, MORE, MORE!
